Now you can receive instant notification on late breaking News Flashes via your email. Simply send an email message to listserver@riso.com with the words "subscribe newsflashlist" in the body of the message and you're done.

Now anytime a new News Flash or Quarterly package is posted on www.riso.com you'll receive a message with a link built in that will take you straight to the new information.

You will need a current user name and password to view the documents; contact your regular RISO representative for this information. Please do not contact ReddFish, Websupport, or Webmaster for a username/password as we can not issue these via email.

To unsubscribe simply send another email message to listserver@riso.com with the words "*un*subscribe newsflashlist" in the body of the message.
